LONDON LARGE: Blood on the Streets - The thrilling new novel of crime, punishment and vengeance by Garry and Roy Robson

A brave man, backed into a corner

Hard as nails, recklessly brave, defender of the traditional values of law and order and a functioning alcoholic, Harry 'H' Hawkins is an old school London copper with over thirty years of besting villains under his belt.

But when a bloody international gang war rips the metropolis apart, 'London's top copper' finds himself under siege. The big man is in trouble. Bang in trouble.

And then the high-level establishment conspiracy he stumbles across as part of his investigations does not exactly help.

Old wounds will re-surface; this time it's personal

The murder of his best friend's wife forces H to decide where his real loyalties lie. Is his old bond with his blood brother stronger than his belief in law order?

If the system has become too corrupt to deal with evil, who will?

As the chaos in London reaches boiling point, and H himself begins to unravel, will he be forced to step outside the law?

To get to the truth, to claim justice, one man must...
