She's an expert in the art of deception

Ex-ad exec Hailey Fitzwilly has fooled her mother into believing that she's still writing jingles and engaged to a doctor when in fact she's flying solo and totally bent—literally—on de-stressing as a yoga instructor. Both her karma and her little white lies are unfolding as they should, until she has to persuade a hot-looking mechanic to part with a custom bike for one of her mother's fund-raisers.

That's when she finds out her power suits aren't exactly revving his engines and decides to explore her options. After all, every smart girl knows just where to find the choke...and the throttle!
