The rugged Road (Italian Edition) Theresa Wallach

L'11 dicembre 1934 Theresa Wallach e Florence "Blenk" Blenkiron, due ragazze poco più che ventenni, partirono da Londra con una monocilindrica Panther 100 ribattezzata "The Venture", un sidecar e un carrello. Obiettivo Città del Capo, Sud Africa. Otto mesi e dodicimila chilometri più tardi, dopo aver attraversato l'intero continente africano, affrontato gigantesche dune di sabbia, il caldo torrido, una serie di violente tempeste e ogni genere di problema meccanico ed essersi imbattute in leoni, gorilla e serpenti e in una straordinaria varietà di umani (dai nomadi ai missionari, dai pigmei agli ambasciatori), giunsero alla meta.

The Rugged Road, universalmente riconosciuto, insieme a I viaggi di Jupiter di Ted Simon e One Man Caravan di Robert Fulton, come uno dei libri capitali della storia della letteratura motociclistica e ora tradotto per la prima volta nella nostra lingua, è l'appassionante racconto di quest'avventura, e di come due donne, ottant'anni fa, siano riuscite a superare ogni scetticismo e pregiudizio, realizzando un'impresa che metterebbe a dura prova anche un motociclista e una moto dei giorni nostri. Armate di tenacia, audacia e desiderio di conoscenza, Theresa e Blenk provarono che "se una cosa può farla un uomo, allora può farla anche una donna".

The Rugged Road è la storia del viaggio in moto più sensazionale mai raccontato, una storia che forza i limiti dell'umano e della meccanica e scardina vecchi miti e pregiudizi, ed è per questo un libro straordinario per tutti i motociclisti, uomini o donne che siano, e per tutti gli appassionati della grande avventura.
