Campo di cenere e stelle (Italian Edition) Giovanni Roma

Una cosa veramente da "eletti", scrive l'autore, "è aver voglia di un esodo" e "uscire da se stessi/ per vagabondare attraverso il mondo l'universo/ e la loro magnetica miriade di suoni e colori/ la loro infinita miniera di sangue bellezza/ rinascite e salvezza// è abbracciare il tempo/ la sua lunga seduzione di domande vie/ naufragi e lotte/ e portarlo a riposarsi un po' in riva al mare// è prendere in giro la morte/ antico rhum di un'antica notte/ perché non è più cosa che ci riguarda".

La sfida della vita nella stagione della prova e della tempesta. L'eterna battaglia fra luce e oscurità nel cuore e poi lungo le vie del mondo. La fine di un amore, ma anche delicate epifanie e frammenti di sogno e cielo. "Campo di cenere e stelle" racconta un viaggio che è la storia di tanti. In un orizzonte dominato da un senso di sacralità che rimanda al trascendente, le pagine - schiette e appassionate - conducono a un vertiginoso incontro col Signore della vita che colma di gioia e illumina, con l'Amore che "è ovunque" "nell'estate nella scintilla e nel grappolo/ nella trasparenza nell'abisso e nel grido" e ovunque "ha inciso il suo meraviglioso e folle ti amo... per noi".
