Christmas in the Rink (Christmas Holiday Extravaganza) Dora Hiers

"Washed up Olympic hopeful looking for part time mechanic's job." Not quite the glamorous life Conner Weddington envisioned during those countless hours of high school skating practices; but after his mother's untimely death on Christmas Day, Conner joined the Army and left everything behind, including the father who despised his dreams, and his beautiful skate partner, Chaney Mitchum. Chaney Mitchum understands why Conner left, but he stole her Olympic aspirations along with her heart. She's never matched that graceful rhythm with another partner, so with her dreams squelched and an adorable niece who requires her attention, Chaney fills her days with diapers and students, not pleasure skating or romance. Now that Conner's back in town, will he reclaim the joy he once felt about Christmas and faith? Can Chaney and Conner rediscover their poetic elegance on the ice?
