Hymns and Other Verses, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint) Joseph Scriven

Some few pages are divided into two parts. The first part contains hymns intended to be sung in the assemblies of the children of God on the first day of the week, and on other occasions when two or three are met together in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. The second part contains verses intended, not to be sung in the assembly, but to express truth, as well as to convey comfort, instruction or reproof to our hearts, in order that we may walk together in obedience; so that when met together on the first day of the week to break bread according to the scripture, we may enter into simple happy praise to Christ within the veil.
