Westwood (Postcard History Series) Michael Pellegrino

Westwood has been "the hub of the Pascack Valley" since the mid-1700s, when the region's first grain mill drew people from neighboring settlements. The town is known for the early establishment of a fire department, post office, and schools and for having the first bank, library, and hospital. Westwood has always attracted visitors to its businesses, places of worship, and social events. For a period of time, the quiet streams, ponds, and natural settings made it a country getaway destination for city dwellers. history of the town.
