Meranda is determined to prove to her community and family that the search for a long-lost family treasure that led to her father's death wasn't a wild goose chase.

When Paul meets Meranda, it isn't exactly the way he envisioned meeting the woman of his dreams. Nor was he imagining a woman who could talk him into risking his reputation and business for a family legend.

Meranda's stubborn determination and blind conviction soon lead her into situations that neither she nor Paul can manage on their own. When the only way out requires reliance on God, will they trust Him?
