Naples (Cadogan City Guides) Dana Facaros, Michael Paul

This new Cadogan City Guide uncovers the charm and vibrancy of this most Italian of cities--the birthplace of pizza, opera, and Sophia Loren. Written by authors who have lived in Italy for many years, it offers comprehensive and personally reviewed listings on where to stay for the ultimate view of the bay and Vesuvius, where to sample a slice of authentic Margherita, and where to go out for an evening's entertainment. Themed itineraries and ideas for excursions outside the city on the nearby Amalfi Coast provide an easy-to-use planning tool, and are accompanied by spectacular color photographs that capture the essence of the city. Extensive grid-referenced maps, with all sights and listings marked, help visitors negotiate their way through elegant squares and narrow, laundry-hung back-streets.
