In these recently acclaimed, subtly interlocking new plays, the lives of two very different men fatefully reconnect... The problematic birth of a child may create new possibilities for love, yet this fragile opportunity may just as easily slip through their hands. Visceral and touching, the plays explore the enduring bonds of childhood and glisten with moments of unexpected tenderness. Written and performed by veteran director Andy Hinds, Morning and Afternoon unveil intensely personal stories, underpinned by the social and political circumstances of Ireland's recent past. 'Moving ... seriously impressive, intelligent theatre, beautifully performed' (Sunday Independent).
