Life Over Easy Margo Candela

Single. Latin. Female. Meet Natalya Campos. She's always had things under control-a successful catering business, a serious relationship, good friends, and a loud but lovable family. She's kind, smart, and organized to the point of obsession. But then her live-in boyfriend announces he's leaving her, and Natalya finds herself having a meltdown in front of a bridal magazine rack at her local 24-hour supermarket. Natalya decides to create a recipe for the perfect man-only to find she herself lacks a few ingredients. Determined to complete her list, she joins a gym, starts to read more than cookbooks, volunteers to clean up an oil spill, and even tries to rediscover her spirituality by going to church (Bible Cliff Notes in purse). Along the way, she meets a diverse cast of characters-from a wacky bookstore owner to a tree hugger named Tree-and gets into some sticky situations, like getting bailed out of jail by her dad. It gets kind of complicated, but for Natalya, life without a spreadsheet may just turn out to be the adventure of a lifetime . . . Praise for Margo Candela and Underneath it All "Fresh, vibrant and fast paced" -Kelley St. John "Balances wit as sharp as a tack with engaging humor and a voice as fresh as spring rain" -Caridad Pieiro "Uproariously dysfunctional, touching and melancholy" -Caridad Ferrer "Anyone whose life has veered off track will relate . . . You'll fall in love" -Patrick Sanchez "Candela is an engaging writer" -Publishers Weekly Since graduating from San Francisco State University with a degree in journalism with an emphasis in magazine writing, Margo Candela has been enjoying getting her feet wet in the publishing world. She has written for Estylo Magazine, ComputerLife Magazine, BayInsider.com, Beyond.com, and ZuluSports.com. She'd dedicated to writing fiction that features strong, complex Latina characters. Underneath It All was her first novel. Speaking to the heart of modern day L
