Cardinal Baptista never thought he would witness the coming of the Antichrist-- the "seabeast." Yet, his interpretation of the book of Revelation indicated that the hierarchy of the Catholic Church would become a diabolical matrix. Furthermore, that biblical text suggested that the Israeli Prime Minister was the complicitous 'landbeast.'" Those two beasts, coupled with Satan-- the "Dragon"-- comprised the Unholy trinity. Who would believe this explanation? At the Papal inauguration, Cardinal Baptista compulsively committed a heinous crime which unwittingly fulfilled Revelation. Immediately, he was secretly imprisoned within the Tower of a secluded Vatican-owned villa just outside Rome. The sequestered Cardinal was tormented by haunting memories from the last forty-two months pertaining to predictions from Revelation: an ineffective Papal Encyclical, seven calamities and a double murder in Jerusalem of "two witnesses" to God. Other ominous events from that apocalyptic scripture occurred during his imprisonment: seven more disasters; forty-two months of thaumaturgical cures; construction of Jerusalem's third Temple; appearance of the "abomination of desolation" within that Temple; invasion of Israel by "Gog" and the relationship of "Armageddon" to Jerusalem-Israel. The Unforgivable Sin is a suspenseful and credible adaptation of the entire book of Revelation. Additional startling disclosures, biblically referenced, pertained to the bizarre origin and actual religion of the impious Antichrist. Can evil incarnate be defeated? In a cataclysmic world, Baptista optimistically awaits a new beginning-- the "millennium." This electrifying novel uniquely combines intelligible scripture, plausible fiction and verifiable scientific facts.
