Walden ovvero la vita nei boschi: 171 (Classici) (Italian Edition) Henry David Thoreau

La vita nei boschi (1854) è il resoconto del soggiorno di Henry David Thoreau sulle rive del lago di Walden, a poche miglia da Concord nel Massachusetts. Convinto dalla necessità di un ritorno alla natura come base per un rinnovamento spirituale, lo scrittore vive per due anni seguendo il succedersi naturale degli eventi e delle stagioni, nella capanna che si è costruito con le sue stesse mani. Thoreau con la sua esperienza condanna la società industriale ed il suo allontanamento dai ritmi della natura, la solitudine del protagonista diviene così un esperimento sia politico che estetico, il tentativo di ritrovare la dimensione mitica dell'esistenza quotidiana.
