?Guests form most of their opinions about your church within thirty seconds of entering the front door-and that impression will stick with them until they return-if they ever do. While being friendly accounts for 20% of a church's effectiveness in welcoming guests, the other 80% comes from well-designed systems. The 7 Habits of a Visitor-Friendly Church audio seminar will help you develop habits and a proven system to effectively attract, welcome, and follow up guests so they will stay in your church. You will learn how to: • incorporate guests into the life of your church • make evangelism the natural purpose of the church • see your church through the eyes of your guests • make people say good things about your church • implement a values-led assimilation strategy • influence people to come to your church • select the best curriculum for your newcomer's class • and more. Includes: 4 CDs of the seminar and 1 reproducible seminar workbook.
