This volume contains the complete EATING screenplay along with a selection of stills from the film. These are highlighted by personal notes written by Henry Jaglom and most of the actresses in the film on the subject of food and eating. Touching and funny, sometimes outrageous, always illuminating, they lend an intimate, yet universal touch to this work. EATING deals with the complex issue of women and their unique and intense relationship to food...a tapestry of 38 specific women through whom we come to know and understand much more about this very complex phenomenon. As one of the women in the film says: I'm still trying to find a man who can excite me as much as a baked potato.
