According to citizens; Ferguson has been a city engulfed with racism. The acts surrounding the shooting death of Michael Brown has sparked much change, but still no progression towards improvement of change. Citizens continue to become enraged about the horror. But were all the facts in? Could this have been rectified if law enforcement communicated with the family? Can the family and the citizens of Ferguson heal from this? Can the citizens move forward without passing racist judgment in Ferguson? Journey with me as we share facts and tools which can help the nation forward from this saga.
