The Sermon on the Mount - Gill Beard

In May, Gill Beard explores how Jesus' teaching in the prolific Sermon on the Mount is as relevant today as it was over 2000 years ago. Exploring these chapters in Matthew further, we are encouraged to think more deeply about who Jesus wants us to become, and challenge us to change our earthly selves in preparation for the kingdom that is both here and imminent. During this month we will discover how to bless and be blessed, find opportunities to amend our ways and discover more freedom as we do so.

Wisdom and Discernment - Bev Shepherd

As we move into June, Bev Shepherd tackles the fundamental principles of wisdom and discernment. We look first to a Biblical understanding of the importance of wisdom, learning how it is defined and its importance for life. We see how wisdom is in fact written into creation, is embodied in Christ and available to us today through the Holy Spirit. Whilst looking at areas of discernment across our summer weekends we are able to grow in wisdom, seek wise feedback and avoid folly in order to live out our God-given potential to the full.
